SHARKEY HAS FOUND ON MALONEY IN TONIGHT'S BOUT
 Jim Maloney, South Boston heavyweight, who will meet Jack Sharkey of Brighton in the main bout of the Boston Evening American's Christmas Fund card at Mechanics Building tonight, was the first to step today on the Boxing Commission's scales, as he is the challenger. The big boy weighed in at 194 pounds, and Sharkey, who mounted the machine a moment later, went him a pound better, the arrow pointing to 195. Both Jim and Jack received the official O.K. of the medical. The weights of the other boxers on tonight's program are as follows: Wee Willie Woods 116 1-2, Johnny Vaceca 117 1-2, Sam Lucchi 142, Andy Devodi 143, Charley Donovan 141 1-2, Red Griffin 141. All of these men received the official O.K. and are in fine shape.

FIVE INDICTED IN ROUND-UP OF THUGS
 Indictments against alleged members of two hold-up gangs were returned today by a Middlesex Grand Jury at East Cambridge. Carl Ghella and John Keating, recently sentenced in Suffolk County, were indicted jointly for armed robberies in Arlington and Cambridge on November 2. Frank Golding, Charles Mullen and John Walsh, arrested in Boston as members of a gang of "touring thugs," of which Charles Roper is alleged to be a member, were indicted for armed robbery in Somerville and Cambridge, and for assault with intent to rob in Cambridge.

SAILOR PRISONERS MAKE ESCAPE
 Two sailor prisoners being taken from the Charlestown Navy Yard to the Charles street jail twisted out of the hands of their captors on Washington street, Charlestown, today, and escaped. The men were being brought to the jail because the brig at the Navy Yard is being renovated. There were awaiting a court-martial.

It Costs to Govern
 No Rouge—Healthy
 Work Out the Age
 Incomplete Epitaph

By Arthur Brisbane
 Overcast, 1925, by Rex Conner.
 THE GOVERNMENT in the next fiscal year will spend $2,484,232,208. What becomes of the one hundred cents in each dollar of government expenditure? Three and one-third cents represent the regular cost of government. More than sixteen cents are spent keeping roads for cars—and we are not one per cent ready. Military pensions, life insurance, annuities, etc., take more than sixteen cents. INTEREST on the public debt costs 22 cents out of every dollar. Paying off the war debt costs 14 cents. You might remember that when they talk about getting this country into the League of Nations, or World Court, which would mean more debt and more interest.

A GIRL with no rouge on her face wins the health prize at Barnard College. Miss Elizabeth Metzger, twenty years old, is five feet four, and one-half inches tall, weighs 120 pounds. She wears high heels, but you can't expect everything. No rouge or lip stick ever touches her skin. She gives the punches on her face a chance to breathe and that means health. MOTHER KILLED IN VAIN EFFORT TO SAVE SON

Providence, Dec. 11.—Mrs. Lena M. Freeman, forty-one, of Fall River avenue, Reokim, Mass., rushed to her death under a big touring car today in an effort to save her five-year-old son, Leonard, in Reokim. Her sacrifice was futile, for the little boy was ground almost to pieces by the same wheel that crushed out the life of his mother.

GRANGE TO PLAY DESPITE INJURY Weakness Blocks Death Bed Marriage GIRL STUDENT SUICIDE

AGED TEACHER READY TO MAKE WOMAN HIS WIFE AS DEATH NEARS

Out in Newton, within the four walls of a little homestead at No. 81 Wesley street, love is fighting a strange battle with death. And as the fight goes on the Grim Reaper seems to be winning. Mrs. Eunice J. Eaten, seventy-five years of age, is the heroine who lies at death's door within that sorrowful little house. By her side stands the aged but erect figure of Alonzo H. Blood, lifelong friend, faithful to the end, ready and willing to carry out her last request—to make her his wife. In his pocket is a marriage license obtained today at Newton City Hall. Across the street, in a homesteaded address, the Methodist editor-in-chief, deacon, stands ready to perform the deathbed ceremony. Continued on Page 2, Column 8.

WIFE HAS BROKEN HIS HEART, SAYS SALM

Followed halfway around the world by her titled husband, the former Millicent Rogers (Countess Salm) has broken his heart by her attitude in keeping their son from him, the Count declares. International Newswire photo of the Countess shows her in garb of mill worker as she appeared at a masquerade ball. The Count declares he is heart-broken, but the loss of a $4,000,000 wife is almost enough to make one's heart ache, so say those who have loved and lost.

FOURTH TRAGEDY IN NORTHAMPTON; DUE TO SHATTERED ROMANCE

Northampton, Dec. 11.—Once more the calm and tranquility of this college town was shattered today when Hossanah Be-dourian, winsome dark-eyed Armenian girl student, purposely added her name to the roll of tragedy which has grown steadily during the last month. Hossanah took her life by turning on the gas jets in the kitchen of her sister's home at No. 3 Glendale avenue, all because of love for a man far away. A month ago today Jeanne Be-dourian, Smith girl from Ellsbrough, N. Y., was found dead in the kitchen of her dormitory apartment with gas flowing from the range. The same day Susan Jessie Ly-burn, secretary to Professor Sears of Massachusetts Agricultural College, also died. Continued on Page 6, Column 3.

MALDEN MAYOR SAVES 3 CHILDREN FROM FIRE

Three Malden children owe their lives today to Mayor John D. Davis of Malden. The Mayor was on his way to his office today when he noticed smoke and flames issuing from the house at No. 317 Pearl street. Entering the house, he met Agnes Perout who was carrying her dying son Henry, four years old, to safety. The father told the Mayor that his wife and children were inside on the lower floor, while on the upper floor were his brother's wife and their two children. Mayor Davis pushed open a door in the lower apartment and encouraged Mrs. Perout, sitting with her baby, Joseph, in her arms. Tired from minutes rushed Mr. and Mrs. Vito Perout, each carrying one of their two children. The mayor fought his way through Continued on Page 1, Column 1.

WARNING TO Motorists
 Don't Start Your Engine UNLESS Garage Windows or Doors Are Open
 All gasoline engines when operating generate CARBON MONOXIDE GAS. This gas is as insidious and fatal poison. It is invisible, odorless, tasteless and non-irritating. A small quantity breathed into the lungs means almost immediate death. This danger can be averted only by fresh air—fresh air through open doors and open windows. Be warned yourself and warn others against this danger from CARBON MONOXIDE GAS.

GILDED KISSES

READ THIS FIRST:
 FLOESIE and MARY ROSE MIDDLETON are two beautiful young sisters, daughters of a widowed mother. Floesie, the younger, works under MISS MACFARLANE, keeping files for Dexter & Co., big Congress street bond firm. Mary Rose is secretary to the sales manager, JOHN MANNERS, an attractive bachelor. She is secretly in love with him—so much in love that she refused the attentions of TOM FITZROY, a young doctor, who wants to marry her. Floesie comes home very late one night, when she had phoned her mother to say that she was out with SAM JESSE, secretary to the president of the Dexter Company. She tells Mary Rose that she tied to her mother—and that the really was out driving with HILARY DEXTER himself! And she shows Mary Rose a gold vanity case that Dexter gave her. Mary Rose orders her to give them back and Floesie refuses to. Moreover, she threatens to go and live with her charming relative, JAMES, if Mary Rose "spikes her nose" into her business. She Continued on Page 19, Column 1.

WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Mrs. Albert S. Renard of Boston street, Wellesley, was dragged to her death by a Boston-bound train at Wellesley station today. $337,636 FOR DEPOSITORS OF DEFUNCT BANK

Xmas Dividend for Cosmopolitan Will Bring the Total Up to 83 Per Cent.

Old Boston City exists for 12,000 depositors in the inactive department of the defunct Cosmopolitan Trust Company for today Judge Carroll, in the Supreme Court, authorized the Bank Commissioner to distribute $337,636.48 among them.

This taken the form of a 6 per cent. dividend and brings the total of dividends paid savings depositors since the bank closed up to 83 per cent. of their deposited savings. All this money will be paid before Christmas providing those entitled to it present their claims promptly. Certificate of proof of claim must be filed with the liquidating agent at his office, room 223, No. 53 State street, before December 15. The dividend is payable on that day and those who send their proof in by mail are expected to enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for return.

Thus far the commercial depositors in the bank have received but 24 per cent. of their money in dividends. However, the Bank Commissioner and the liquidating agent are hopeful that sufficient money will be available to permit of a 6 per cent. dividend some time during the month of January.

RADIO CHAT ENDS WITH DRUG STORE LIQUOR RAID

Officer Troy of the police headquarters liquor squad turned into a discussion of radio with George Joyce, clerk in an Arch street drug store, today, according to a story he told in court, and ended by suggesting a drink. Joyce is alleged to have produced a half-pint of gin, whereupon Troy beckoned to fellow officers Joseph and Black, who entered and uncovered six gallons of gin and a quantity of alcohol in the place. Joyce was fined $100 in Municipal Court. Police say it is the fifth occurrence of the kind in the case of the drug store.

MRS. EDWARDS HELPS SEND GIFTS TO FAR-OFF VETS

Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards and Miss Marie D. Gray, representing the Department of the Auxiliary of the American Legion, were here today with other helpers at room 427, State House, packing Christmas boxes for Massachusetts veterans in hospitals in California, Colorado, Texas and North Carolina. Miss Edith Wallace oversaw nurses during the World War, is attending to the Christmas cheer for the women in hospitals in the State who served in the World War.

BAR EXAM FRAUDS GOING TO JANUARY GRAND JURY

Attorney General Jay B. Benton, who has been investigating the bar examination fraud, stated today that the evidence collected by his office will not be presented to a special grand jury. The regular session of the grand jury ends tomorrow. Benton could see no reason for the additional expense of a special session and stated that the evidence will probably be presented to the new grand jury which convenes next month.

Washington, Dec. 11 (U.S.P.). Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., will be admitted to full Republican standing in the Senate if it was learned today as a result of a compromise reached by administration leaders.

This general solution of the new Senate's first insurgent row, it was said, was agreed upon after Senator William M. Butler, D-Massachusetts, chairman of the Republican National Committee, and spokesman for President Coolidge withdrew his opposition to LaFollette.

64 LICENSED TO SELL GUNS

Sixty-four establishments in Boston are licensed to sell firearms. It was stated today in the report of the Licensing Board in its annual report to Governor Fuller. Of these, thirty-four are conducted by Americans, thirty-seven by persons of Russian birth free by persons of Italian birth and the rest by persons of other nativities.

The board recommended that the law which permits the sale of ice cream, confectionery, soda water, fruit and other foodstuffs on Sundays, while forbidding the sale of beer, wine and other food products, be made more liberal in its provisions because of changed conditions since the law was enacted.

FIREMEN SAVE CHILD PINNED BY WINDOW

Cambridge Tot Disobeys Her Mother's Orders and Has a Close Escape From Death

After she had disobeyed her mother's commands to stay away from the windows, nine-year-old Gladys Weston of No. 35 Antis street, Cambridge, was rescued in a most spectacular manner by firemen from a window, when a window that she had raised to enquire a chum in the street, fell on her neck and was slowly choking her.

The child was unable to move her hands, high enough to raise the window. Ryan responded in the chair's automobile, after a call had been sent by frantic neighbors who heard the child's screams and were unable to reach her because the doors of the house were locked.

Ladder No. 7 ladder was placed against the building and Ryan climbed and extricated the girl as she was losing consciousness. Mrs. Gladys Weston, mother of the girl, had left the house a short time previous on an errand and did not return until after the rescue had been made. On leaving she told little Gladys, who was home from school with a cold to stay in the kitchen and not go near the front of the house.

Legal Status of Hospital in Death of College Secretary Is Probed

Northampton, Dec. 11.—District Attorney Thomas J. Hammond, State Detective Joseph V. Daly and Police Chief Cook of Easthampton held a long conference today to study the evidence in the death of Miss Susan Jessie Lyman, a secretary at Massachusetts Agricultural College.

The authorities stated that the main purpose of the conference was to ascertain whether any clues had been overlooked in the attempt to find the doctor responsible for the operation which led to the girl's death.

The investigation of the legal status of the private hospital conducted by Dr. Clarence I. Sparks is an important part of the investigation of Miss Lyman's death, the authorities said, she had been in a room at the hospital.

The investigation has focused on the hospital operated by the former associate medical examiner had no special license. It was licensed as a university hospital.

Dr. Sparks, who was reported missing after his trip to Boston, where, after questioning by Governor Fuller, he resigned his political position, is now said to be in the Easthampton home, only members of his household have been seen.

District Attorney Thomas J. Hammond said he had been trying to interview him but could not get in touch with him.

In the face of ever increasing speculation and deep resentment because of the month's delay following the death of Miss Lyman, District Attorney Hammond today calmly intimated that he did not propose to hurry matters.

The dead girl's father said today that he would confer with District Attorney Hammond Monday.

The dead girl's father said today that he was not to stay here, as he wished "to let poor Jessie's body rest in her cold before looking into the affair."

30 RESCUED AS SHIP GROUNDS OFF MAINE

Portland, Me., Dec. 11 (A.P.)—The steamer Grand Manan, which was beached with thirty passengers aboard while in Lubeo Narrows on a trip from here to Saint John, N. B., is in drydock today for replacement of its broken propeller shaft.

When the accident occurred the vessel was swept ashore on the mud flats in lower Passamaquoddy Bay. A lighter attracted by distress signals came alongside and brought passengers and supplies to Eastern Point. The Grand Manan later was floated.

A stiff wind was sweeping the bay when the Grand Manan was beached. Passengers and crew were rescued, but the ship had not acquired half an hour's way, when the boat would have been at the mouth of high seas on the bay.

GIRL SWALLOWS POISON WHILE ON TAXI RIDE

Roxbury Miss Despondent as Suitor Stops Calling When Xmas Draws Near

The holiday season brought nothing but unhappiness to twenty-year-old Clarissa Stewart of Copleland street, Roxbury. Yearning for her absent sweetheart, she tried to end a season of a joyless Christmas by drinking poison.

Happy for several months with her young suitor, who took her to shows and dances and painted glowing pictures of a future that held beautiful homes and costly trinkets, according to her aunt, Mrs. S. Barrett Lawrence, with whom she lived, the girl became despondent as Christmas neared and her sweetheart stopped calling.

Thereafter, her aunt said, always around the Christmas holidays as beginning of her birthday, which, this year, came last Sunday, this time, however, that day marked her first determination to end her life. She took a bottle of poison, and, according to the aunt, "Puss" after about half a bottle for two weeks, never broke a bottle to take her on a walk in the fields.

After that she became sadder, brooding over her misfortune, and she was seen to go to a party and sit alone.

Nobody knows where she spent the next few days. Finally, however, she was found in a taxi cab driven to the house, and when she was taken to the hospital, she was found to have swallowed a bottle of poison.

She died in the City Hospital, where physicians say she will recover.

Killed Seven Bandits

Boston, Dec. 11.—A U.S. marshal and his posse killed seven of the most famous of the robber bandits when a force of 200 of the rebel marauders descended upon the Ashcroft quarter of the city, not far from the British hospital.

Seeks Death

Clarissa Stewart of Copleland street, Roxbury, who drank iodine on taxi ride because of bright love. She will live.

WOMAN FINED IN RUM CASE

A sequel to a liquor raid in Hay street was played in Third District Court, when Judge Robert Walton fined Mrs. Lydia M. Donnelly $10 on a charge of keeping and exporting intoxicating liquor for sale, which charge she had pleaded guilty.

The testimony of the vice squad under sergeant Charles H. Bresna was that they raided the home of the defendant on Saturday night about 9:35 o'clock and found eight half-pints of liquor in bottles. They testified to receiving numerous complaints of sales taking place at this address.

The judge found Mrs. Donnelly to be a defendant in a liquor case and that she took the blame to shield her husband, as it would mean a second charge for him. Judge Walton suspended the sentence to December 15.

POLICE RESCUE AIRPLANE AIDS 'SHOP EARLY' CAMPAIGN

Women and Children Led to Safety From Burning Apartments

Two women and children were led through smoke-filled hallways to the street as fire endangered them in the three-story wooden apartment building at No. 10 Broadway street today.

One woman, William Simon, of ladder 1, received cuts about the head and face that necessitated his going to a hospital for treatment.

The fire started in the second floor before Mrs. Emily Lawrence had completed her task of alarming the occupants. It had threatened down through into the top floor. When Pauline Henry Palmer and Frank Smith rushed into the building after sounding the alarm they found every corridor filled with smoke and masses of flame belching through the upper floor rooms.

On the top floor they found Mrs. Martha de Polio asleep with her baby. Her husband, who was asleep, was taken from the street. Mrs. de Polio was taken from the street. Mrs. de Polio was taken from the street.

Mrs. James Maloney and her children and Mrs. Harry Hall were taken from their apartments on the second floor and from the first floor the officers took Mrs. Adeline Peterson and her child, who had been taken from their apartment on the first floor. Mrs. Peterson was taken from the street.

HUGE GAS TANK PERMIT STIRS SO. BOSTON

Senator McCormack Starts Fight on Jenney Plan; Neal Orders Probe

Several investigations and a concerted campaign against the building of a 2,000,000-gallon storage tank for gasoline in South Boston have been started.

Immediately it became known that Mayor Curley had approved the permit issued by the street commissioners to the Jenney Manufacturing Company for installation of the tank, State Rep. Marshall Neal ordered a public hearing for December 17.

Senator John W. McCormack of South Boston is leading the fight against erection of the tank. State officials declare they had no knowledge that permits had been issued. Nothing had been said about the permits for the tank, which were issued on November 1, following a flat refusal on the part of the city to grant permits to the same company to build a 1,000-barrel tank in the same gasoline territory.

Senator McCormack declares he has seen the permit and that above the words $5,000 gasoline has been written $5,000 barrels.

The South Boston Citizens Association, after hearing the facts as outlined by Senator McCormack, has joined in the fight.

FREIGHT BOOST HITS COTTON INDUSTRY

N. E. Mills, Just Getting on Prosperity Basis, Face Loss in Business

Manufacturers, Dec. 11.—The contemplated increase of railroad freight rates on cotton goods will hit the New England textile industries an unexpected body blow.

The industries, just starting on a new era of prosperity, are wondering just what it is all about.

It was announced through the office of J. J. Cummings, transportation engineer of the New Hampshire Manufacturers' Association, that the Eastern group railroad consolidated classification committee, which fixes freight rates when it can, plans in January to radically increase the rates from New England points to Chicago and St. Louis.

The will mean if the proposed increase goes into effect, that the products of New England cotton mills will enter the Western market under a handicap which leading mill officials declare would be difficult to overcome.

On the present basis, shippers from New Hampshire are allowed at the Boston rate of $1.58 to Chicago. The proposed rate on this particular kind of goods, which includes dyed or printed, will be $1.47 per cent.

65-YEAR SQUATTER FULL OF FIGHT

John M. McQuinn, of Grant's court, Charlestown, is 65 years old, but not ready to quit a piece of land on the slope of Bunker Hill. He built a barn there in 1860, and now that his claimants' estate has torn it down he wants $5,000 damages.

WARRANT OUT IN BIG WORCESTER LARCENY CASE

Worcester, Dec. 11 (A.P.)—A warrant was issued today for the arrest of Arthur J. McQuinn, assistant treasurer of the Worcester Savings Bank, charged with the larceny of $10,000 from the E. G. Figg company, dealers in wall papers. The warrant was immediately issued upon the report of the company's manager, J. J. Figg, that the money was missing. The company was organized by Arthur J. McQuinn, assistant treasurer of the Worcester Savings Bank.

BARN WRECKED, SQUATTER WILL SUE ESTATE

After a tenancy of sixty-five years, John M. McQuinn, ninety-two, is preparing to fight for his squatters' rights and has sued the trustees of the Bunker Hill estate for $5,000 damages, charging that the agents would not let him be had built in the Bunker Hill estate in the April of 1860, and now living in New York and Austin C. Boston.

Through his attorney, Samuel H. Davis, McQuinn, who lives at No. 10 Grant's court, Charlestown, claims that he came from Ireland, came to the United States in 1840, and a barn on the lot at North Mead and Bedford streets, on the corner of the Bunker Hill estate, which he built in 1860, and which he claims to be the last under the statute which gives right to a tenant after twenty years' occupancy.

Girl Saved From Suicide At Niagara

Niagara Falls, Dec. 11 (A.P.)—A young woman, unidentified, waded out into the Niagara River at Prospect Point, and laid down in the current.

Rescue workers formed a chain in the water and dragged her ashore just as she began to drift toward the cataract. She was unconscious.

"Oh, who didn't I go over when I had a chance?" cried the woman when she came to. "Don't tell the police."

She refused to give her name, but her husband heard the remark "A. E. Mann." It is believed she lives in Buffalo.

Take $1,900 Payroll

New York, Dec. 11 (A.P.)—Four robbers today took up the payroll of the U. S. 2nd Cavalry, and escaped with $1,900 in cash and checks, constituting a part of the payroll.

LEAGUE TO ASK U. S. TO ARMS PARLEY

Geneva, Dec. 11 (A.P.)—An invitation for the United States to participate in the work of preparing for the proposed international disarmament conference under the auspices of the League of Nations will probably be sent to Washington as soon as it is signed by Signor Scialoja, president of the league's council.

The council leaders are anxious to frame a communication which will be most likely to secure the collaboration of the Washington government. The present tendency is in favor of sending the United States a simple invitation to become a member of the league's preparatory commission.

The general impression in Geneva is that league leaders, while hoping that the United States will undertake full-fledged official membership.

BEATRICE
BURTON

"That was my boy friend, killing me over the telephone. Mary Rose said, 'I'm not engaged to him.'"

A Real Life Serial of Love and Temptation in the Mad Whirl of Boston Business

(Now Go on With the Story) CHAPTER III.

MRS. MIDDLETON looked when Mary Rose glided in. Flossie's staying at home under the big eyes of a new friend.

"Mary Rose, I am thinking you're hard on poor Flossie sometimes," she said in her mild way. "I'm sure she has a good heart, but she wouldn't say so."

"Oh, wouldn't you?" thought Mary Rose, her eyes on Flossie's not very strong and I don't know what data enough." And her mother.

"Not very strong," Mary Rose repeated. "She's strong enough to go around half the night. I notice. And what makes me so cross is that she expects to sleep all day and let you wait on her."

Mary Rose found Flossie propped up against the pillows of her bed, turning the pages of a fashion magazine.

"It's a darling of you to be so sweet to me when I'm sick," giggled Flossie.

Mary Rose glared at her. "I know you're not sick at all—just plain lazy, Flossie Middleton," she said. "You may fool Mother, but you can't fool me!"

And as Mary Rose went out, closing the door sharply behind her, Flossie threw her a look of triumph.

Torture of Love

An hour later, Mary Rose stood at the door of John Manners' office. She was almost afraid to go in. And yet she could scarcely wait to see him and to hear his voice.

She drew a long breath and opened the door.

"Good morning, Mr. Manners," she said, looking up at him.

"Good morning, Mrs. Middleton," he said, looking down at her. "How are you today?"

"Very well, thank you," she said, looking up at him. "I'm feeling much better today."

"That's good," he said, looking down at her. "I'm glad to hear it. How is your mother?"

"She's feeling much better today," she said, looking up at him. "I'm feeling much better today."

"That's good," he said, looking down at her. "I'm glad to hear it. How is your mother?"

"She's feeling much better today," she said, looking up at him. "I'm feeling much better today."

'RIP VAN PIGSKIN'

THAT is the title of the latest from the typewriter of Myles T. McSweeney, author of "Simon Pure, the Cigar Box Amateur." We are amazed at what Mr. McSweeney has done with a few sheets of paper and his imagination. Doubtless the readers will be, too. That is why there will be two instalments of "Rip Van Pigskin." One will be in the Saturday Sport Special tomorrow. The other will be in Monday's paper.

The Franklin Receiver
With built in Loud Speaker of Great Volume and Superb Tone

The Freshman Masterpiece five tube radio receiver is known all over the world as the "WONDER SET." Its ease of operation, its distance getting ability and mellow tone have spread happiness and education in hundreds of thousands of homes in every part of the globe.

People who could easily afford to spend three and four times the cost of a Masterpiece for a radio receiver, have signified, in no uncertain terms, their decided preference for one of these "WONDER SETS." To satisfy this insistent demand we were induced to encase them in cabinets of rare beauty—fine enough for the most exquisite home.

The Franklin Model, illustrated above, is the pride of the Freshman line. This receiving set, with built-in loud speaker, is encased in a heavy five-ply genuine mahogany cabinet. The front cover opens in desk-like fashion, a most convenient and attractive arrangement. As a result you have the WORLD'S GREATEST RADIO RECEIVER, with built-in loud speaker, in a charming piece of furniture all for only Seventy-Five Dollars.

Console Cabinet to Match

Ruggedly built, heavy, five-ply genuine mahogany, the design of the cabinet is identical to the pattern of the receiving set. The doors to the compartments open from the front, affording ample room for all batteries, battery chargers, eliminators and every accessory that could possibly be used in connection with a radio set. This useful and attractive console cabinet is priced at only Forty Dollars.

RADIO JOB FOR

PRACTICAL YOUNG MAN
The Department of Agriculture is seeking someone to serve as chief of its radio broadcast service at a salary of $100 per month. To be eligible, the applicant must have a high school education and be a native-born American citizen. Applications should be sent to the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and should be accompanied by a recommendation from a local radio station.

UPSET STOMACH, INDIGESTION

Instant Relief from Acidity, Gas, Heartburn, Dyspepsia
Glow a Few Pleasant Tablets to Correct Your Digestion

So harmless, pleasant, quick! The moment "Pape's Diapessin" reaches the stomach all the pain and distress vanish. Millions know the magic of "Pape's Diapessin" when the stomach is disordered. They know how it instantly neutralizes the excess acids in stomach which cause the gas, sourness, bloating, fullness and sick headache. Don't stay "stomach-miserable!" A box of "Pape's Diapessin" costs 50 cents. Your druggist guarantees it to be the most harmless way known to relieve such stomach distress and correct indigestion.

FANS MUST SAY WHAT THEY WANT

Cooperation from this radio audience is urged by officials of the radio section of the Department of Commerce, as the next step in perfecting radio broadcasting, which in recent months has improved. The department has gone as far as it can under present conditions from the broadcasting side, and now it asks what they want and the answers will be incorporated in the next step. The big thing is to make the stations work better, and the department is now working on that. The department is now working on that. The department is now working on that.

FREE RADIO.
In this country there are no fees for listening in and no taxes for owning and operating a receiver. Some fans appreciate this, but seem unwilling to fulfill the requirement of reporting frequently to their favorite station managers what their opinions are and also what news they have. The stations are entitled to criticism and deserve this small amount of co-operation, even though the fans may not be broadcast or published. It is likely to the audience as all second a good act on the part of a good play in any sporting event. The same analogy is even carried to the "listening," which is what serves to advise the station managers that something is not quite right or is misunderstood; as such of course when we have the station in the microphone—that it really is equivalent to applause.

allowed the frequently offered and often tempting "bad" bait. Always we have insisted that instruments and accessories pass the most rigid tests of scientific accuracy and everyday "workability" before placing them on our counters.
